THE WAR ENDED.

There is no doubt that the Japanese Army has by this time made its triumphant march into Peking. It is no use to discuss the causes which led to the constant victories of the bravest of brave nations. The truth is that the soldiers were furnished with goods that only Japan can secure. In spite of the large demands of the Japanese government on the manufacturers the Dai Nippon on Hotel Street has been able to secure some of the very best goods and on the Oceanic there was received a shipment of that will paralyze the community here.

Japanese Fancy Ware and Xmas Goods

The Japanese Army will take Peking, but the Dai Nippon will take Honolulu with its large assortment of Silk Crepes and other Japanese Goods. Before buying the usual style Xmas Presents, call at the LOCAL NOTES.

Ehlers & Co. are ready for Xmas.

The Anglican Church Chronicle has been published for December.

The band will play at Emmer Square to-night.

The Leilani Boat Club dance will take place next Friday.

The Norrie libel case has been further continued until next Wednesday.

Very little business was transacted in the District Court this morning.

The attorney-general and chief Larsen inspected the Bowen premises last Saturday.

The band could not play at Emma Square last Saturday evening.

Earthquake last night! More Royalist conspiracies. They even use the elements.

James Brown was arrested last night on a charge of assaulting his wife.

Lawyers will leave for Maui tomorrow, and look after their cases before the Circuit Court.

Previous to taking charge of the Electric Works, Captain Pratt will take a trip to San Francisco.

The only place for all Hawaiian Watercolor Christmas Cards, is at KING BROS., ART Store, Hotel Streets.

In spite of the miserable weather a large number of people visited the Waikiki resorts yesterday and enjoyed life and bathing.

Messrs Terril and Griffith, the two champion wheel-men will leave in the Albert tomorrow.

Ho! Ho! Chief Crowley is not altogether devoting his time to recreation and leprosy. How about extradition?

Call at the Masonic Building on Alakea Street and ask for a catalogue of the Waterbury Clock Company. Then you will know what to order.

The revolution (sic) on Maui seems to worry the authorities. Why doesn't "Billy" Smith go up and meet his old "chums." He hasn't been forgotten!

The police were very numerous at Waikiki last Saturday. Evidently they expected that the Australia would stop at Sans Souci, and land the often promised arms—or opium.

Don't forget the sale of tailors good next Wednesday and Thursday. It is Hackfeld & Co's goods and J. F. Morgan is the auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Egan have met a sad bereavement through the death of their infant daughter. The funeral took place this morning.

The Paradise of the Pacific is now being prepared. Editor Hoogs is not sure of getting any poetry in this issue, but it is sincerely hoped that he can raise a Dutch Xmas Carol at reduced price for the festive occasion.

The new watch shop on King Street opposite the California Fruit Market is now in full blast. H. G. Braid is a first class watch-maker and jeweller and deserves patronage.

The French dinner at the Hotel last Saturday was a great success. It is hoped that the experiment will be repeated, and that Honolulu will have an occasional chance to eat properly and nicely.

Several mounted police men made fools of themselves last night. One arrested a peaceful employee of Mr. Lishman and five jumped a kanaka without provocation. And most of them got licked. When is the Marshal going to stop this nuisance?

Mr. George Lycurgus, the genial host of Sans Souci, returned from Kauai yesterday. The gentleman must evidently be a very popular man in this community as everybody since his departure has been busy at guessing his whereabouts. Don't leave us again George.

Xmas cards are not the fashion of the season. That is, the old-fashioned cards which everybody has seen and everybody has been tired of. The cards in water colors, dealing with Hawaiian subjects are the only proper fad. They are the fashion of the day, and they can only be obtained from King Bros. Art store on Hotel street.

The Australia.

Honolulu's favorite steamer Australia, Captain Houdlett arrived this morning and the community was relieved of considerable anxiety caused by her unexplainable delay. A repair in her machinery necessitated the delay of her sailing hour and she left San Francisco on the evening of the 26th ult. The steamer had a fine passage although the fswell was rather heavy and she brought a number of passengers and a heavy freight list.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mrs. Ellen Graham nee (Coney) and her two children arrived this morning in the Australia. Mrs. Graham who is one of Honolulu's most favored society belles will visit her mother for some time. Her many friends were profuse in welcoming her to her home and congratulating her on her magnificent appearance.

Mr. McStocker who has been on an official trip to Victoria and San Francisco returned this morning. Mrs. McStocker and the Misses Along accompanied him.

Mr. W. H. Coney, who has finished his studies in the States returned this morning and will probably take up his permanent residence here.

Major Seward was a passenger in the Australia. His health is much benefited by his trip.

There was no change in Mr. C. O. Berger's condition at the time of Australia's departure.

Judge Widemann will arrive in San Francisco on next Saturday and will return to Honolulu in the Mariposa. In regard to his mission a cablegram says:

London, Nov. 23. Judge Widemann sent on a mission to England by ex-Queen Liliuokalani, has finished his visit here and gone to Germany, from which country he will return to Hawaii via New York. The Judge has not met with success.

Th. Lindsay the "popular jeweller" returned this morning after having enjoyed a splendid trip to the coast.

Mr John D. Spreckels did not come down in the Australia as expected. He will probably arrive after New Year.

Dr. Geo. Herbet returned to town yesterday.

Bad Form.

The funeral of S. Von. Topaz, a suicide, took place yesterday. The ceremony was conducted with military honors and the government band was in attendance. We desire to say nothing against the poor man whom we from personal experience consider insane; but we consider it proper to call the attention to the fact that no Christian church under any circumstances and under any sect tolerates a Christian funeral to a man who violates all christian principles by committing suicide. We are not orthodox in any way but we are surprised to see the "Most Christian government of the Most Christian Republic of Hawaii" willing to commit a serious breach not alone on good form and military etiquette but on Christian dogmas. We won't have any kick coming, though, if the poor fellow's comrades will follow his example.

A FASHIONABLE WEDDING.

Miss Helene Isenberg was married to Mr. Carl Wolters on Kauai last Friday evening. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Carl Isenberg and the bridegroom is the popular manager of the Lihue plantation. The ceremony took place in the Lihue church, Herr Pastor Isenberg officiating. It is unnecessary to state that "all Kauai" was present on the festive occasion and that good wishes were showered in abundance on the heads of the happy couple. Among the Honolulu friends who witnessed the nuptials are mentioned Mr. H. Wolters and Consul H. Hackfeld.

OBITUARY.

Death of Amos P. Jones.

A well known and highly respected kamaaina has crossed the Styx. Eighty years ago Amos P. Jones was born in Maine, United States, and he spent the best part of his life in Hawaii-nee. As a sugar planter in Wailuku he was admired as one of the pioneers of the ranks. As an agriculturist in Makawao he made a success, and his potatoes and corn found a ready market in California. In latter years he passed his days in his quiet home in the Maui Mountains and in spite of his age he the most energetic in starting a successful market for preserved fruits. Age finally overcame him and he came to Honolulu for medical treatment. In spite of tenderest care he succumbed and death has called away another member of the old stock who helped to make Hawaii what it is or ought to be today. The deceased was a temperate, modest and just man, and the nick-name given to him was an honor and not a blame. He was known as Quaker-Jones. The departed gentleman leaves a wife living on Mevi, and who was prevented from coming to the city through the stormy weather which prevented the steamers to stop on that island. Children in the United States and step children in Hawaii mourn the loss of a true and faithful friend. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

LADIES' COLUMN.

Mrs. FRIEMANN, who manages our Dress Making Department, has returned from Chicago and is just overloaded with fashions, styles, and talks from morning to night about dresses being out this way and that way, and this is in fashion and that out of fashion, about how this ought to be made and that ought to be made. It's worth your while to hear her. She says we are in it with the best of them when it gets to handling stylish goods.

Rainy weather always suggests something warm and as all Wool Flannels and Flannelettes are the thing we propose to decrease our stock of them somewhat during the week, at what is becoming quite well known as Quick Sale and Small Profit Prices.

Flannel is an article in every day demand, and as necessary to the complete outfit as air and light to perfect health and strength. For Night Dresses, Chemises and Knickerbockers nothing is better, while for dresses nothing is neater or more comfortable. We are going to move these goods and now is the time to buy them, and when you are doing it, don't forget that we are making a run this week on Flannel and Flannelettes, that other bargains are offered.

Yes your five cent check is worth just as much as a five dollar one—it is not the value of the checks that takes you to the Volcano but the number you have of them.

HIRES ROOT BEER

NERVOUS.

ARE YOU?

Can't sleep, can't eat, tired, thirsty? It's a tonic you want.

HIRES ROOTBEER

purifies the blood, tickles the palate.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

You drink

HIRES ROOTBEER

for pleasure and get a tonic. You take it as a tonic and get pleasure.

Root BEER

The most APPETIZING and WHOLESOME TEMPERANCE DRINK in the world. TASTE IT.

Ask your Druggist or Grocer for it. C. E. HIRES, PHILADELPHIA

Morning, Noon, Night

Good all the time. It removes the languor of morning, sustains the energies at noon, lulls the weariness of night—HIRES ROOTBEER—delicious, sparkling, appetizing. Good as luxury, good as a tonic.

It is beyond all dispute a wonderful health-giving drink, and it is very easy for any one to understand why this is so. The root, herbs, barks and berries, from which HIRES ROOT-BEER is skillfully made, are the identical things from which physicians get their most helpful remedies. For instance: Do you believe that sarsaparilla is a valuable remedy? Well HIRES ROOTBEER contains more sarsaparilla than many sarsaparillas. The same is true as to other ingredients.

It is doing more to advance practical temperance than many people realize. It is used and recommended by the most cautious and conservative temperance people. The most scrupulous abstainer can enjoy HIRES ROOTBEER with impunity, and recommend it to others as an agreeable and healthful substitute for the strong drink which he opposes.

It is a home-made and homelike beverage. It is very easily prepared, and if the plain directions are followed, it will always be good. Every member of the family, from the baby to the grandfather, can enjoy HIRES ROOTBEER, and every one of them will have better health for each swallow they take. It improves the appetite, purifies the blood, and tones the whole system. Children especially delight in HIRES ROOTBEER. Its preparation interests them, and its use does them good. In thousands of homes, "HIRES ROOT-BEER that mother made," will be among the happiest recollections of childhood.

BEWARE! Do not confound it with other Rootbeer preparations, as it is entirely unlike anything else of the kind. Beware of extracts advertised for making Rootbeer, as they are composed chiefly of coloring matter and oils to give them flavor, which excite the nerve and cause nausea.

Hires Improved Rootbeer packages makes really the most harmless of our fashionable drinks, yet nourishing and strengthening the blood. It cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develop in kidney and urinary diseases, and in fact, in any case that arises from an impure state of the blood.

Hires Improved Rootbeer is offered to the public with full confidence of its merits. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and an infant may take it with perfect safety.
